

The Commissioner's Tour

MR. C. McDONNELL
Editor of the North Battleford News, who spoke at the Welcome Meeting.

After the death of Voltaire, the great atheist, the nurse who had attended to him was asked by the doctor to undertake another case. She replied: "In he a Christian? I have nursed Voltaire, and for all Europe I

We call special attention to the article on the Ateneum, a second instalment of which appears on page 2 of this issue. We may safely call this a Salvation Army classic, seeing it is from the pen of such an able writer as Colonel Brangle, who unquestionably stands in the forefront as an au-men, and I had a public service for children, but being present. The Major gave me some "Object Lessons" on "Charles Tanka." The children were quite understanding and all enjoyed this service. Captain Blockwell and Lieutenant Mitchell also gave short talks.

At night we had our open-air. This was one of the best during our stay here. The inside service was better of real meaning, and although no one came out, we believe God spoke and we were praying and believing for souls. We were looking forward to the time when God's mission will pay us another visit.

Rest is not quitting our busy career.
Rest is adapting ourselves to our sphere.

Therefore if any man be
old things are passed away;
new. And all things are of himself by Jesus Christ and of reconciliation.

THE PAS. Mas.—Glad to report that we are steadily advancing in the land of the midnight sun. The attendance at the meetings, and interest taken by the local citizens of Iato, has been very encouraging.

On Thursday, June 10, we had a very interesting program, and our hall was filled to its capacity. Among the items was a selection from the newly-formed string band; also recitation, duets, guitar solos, etc. Mr. J. Young, Secretary for Northern Manitoba, very ably filled the chair.

Mr. McPherson spoke and briefly touched on The Army's work among the young people. Our Y.P. roll has been doubled, and a number of them are engaged and waiting to be enlisted. M. S. E.

sitions. Three comrades came forward, one for St. Cecilia and two for St. Andrew.
At night we had with us
the other three Steele (father of Captain Steele, the overseas Chaplain), whose eloquent testimonies, both indoors and out, were worth listening to. The Song book had good service. The Songbook, the hymns, Away from Jesus,
and the Captain spoke from Rev. 11:20
"Behold I stand at the door and knock." Five novices came forward, one backslider and four for Holiness.
The sister also came forward twice
at night, and the meeting closed with hymns, Amen, and verse

Salvation Songs

Tune—"St. Peter," "St. Agnes."
How sweet the name of Jesus sounds
In a believer's ear;
It soothes his sorrows, heals his fears,
And drives away his care.

It makes the wounded spirit whole,
And calms the troubled breast;
Tis manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary rest.

Dear name! the Rock on which I build,
My shield and hiding-place;
My never-failing Treasury, allied
With boundless stores of grace!

Weak is the effort of my heart,
And cold my warmest thought,
But when I see Thee as Thou art,
I'll praise Thee as I ought.

Till then I will Thy love proclaim
With every fleeting breath;
And may the music of Thy name
Refresh my soul in death!

Tune—"Falcon Street," 47: "Reuben," 54.
Stand up and bless the Lord,
Ye people of His choice;
Stand up and bless the Lord your God
With heart and soul and voice.

Tough high above all praise,
Above all blessing high,
Who would not fear His holy name,
And bless and magnify?

Oh, for the living flame
From His own altar brought,
To touch our lips, our minds inspire,
And wing to heaven our thought!

God is our Strength and Song,
And His Salvation ours;
Them be His love in Christ proclaimed,
With all our ransomed powers.

Stand up, and bless the Lord,
The Lord your God adore;
Stand up, and bless His glorious name,
Henceforth for evermore.
